Few Folks Have Gray Hair Now

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by lack of sulphur in the hair. One grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You justampen a sponge or soft brush with it and just draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

New Theatre Conveniences For Interurban Patrons

The Orem Interurban has inaugurated a new convenience for its patrons, in the form of securing theatre tickets for its patrons. In connection with the change of schedule, appearing in another part of this paper, the company has inaugurated a "theatre train," which takes the Utah county people to Salt Lake City just in time for them to get supper at a cafe and then go to any one of the theatrical or vaudeville performances.

More than this the company has made arrangements whereby its patrons may secure tickets during the day from any of its local agents who will keep a chart of the seats for sale and then telephone them in as they are selected. A section will be reserved each evening for out of town patrons till after the theatre car has left, when those not taken will be sold to any one who calls at the box office. A car returns to Utah county as usual after the show.

Lott's Christmas Compliments

Oh! to carry the water from frozen wells,
On the human temper, Oh! how it tells.
With the holiday jingles and holiday rhymes,
Real good plumbing is up to the times.

Now Lott, the plumber, has a very bright plan,
That will help the boy and every man;
And the women, too, we haven't a doubt,
Will never feel the least bit put out.

To have conveniences in her house,
That will save her breath in scolding her spouse:
How the empty buckets and kettles soon tell,
When the stews are burning or you want to sell.

A heating plant Lott will soon install,
Whenever you say or ask him to call.
Now you have no excuse for very cold feet,
If you are only willing expenses to meet.

Quite often the doctors, you all will agree,
Three hundred dollars they will cut from "Poor Me,"
And all you have left is an awful wall,
With a few little scars to tell the sad tale.

Now three hundred dollars we all know full well,
Will make a good house look very swell.
If sanitary plumbing, with fixtures the latest,
By M. S. Lott has been well installed.

He'll estimate free, without charging a dollar,
The mistakes will be few, he's a B. Y. U. scholar.
With guaranteed workings all made to meet:
Oh Morgan's the boy to consult about heat.

His telephone number is 84-W;
Through this ad in the Banner he will now trouble you;
With our Christmas announcement to one and to all,
So you will remember where to make the right call.

With a cleaner Lehi, way up in Class C,
Next summer we'll hustle and work and agree,
With plumbing that's done and done the right way,
To equal the towns 'way up in Class A.

Now work that is done by a scientific man,
Is work hard to beat and work that will stand;
It's like a good book whose impressions will last
Long after the worker is one of the past.

Our Sanitary Plumber has a real estate name,
But for a clean town he works just the same.
So to yourself and your town then be true,
Are the compliments now he is wishing for you.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year,
Abundant health and lots of good cheer;
With loyalty to home thrown into the bargain,
We thank our kind providence for sending us Morgan.
